OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

There has been nothing very startling during the week in the political world, and the status on the Republican side at least has anot changed. It is still an almost even race between Blaine and Grant, the popular feeling being almost entirely with the former, and the protest against the latter's to be looked for from that quarter, great cares and risks of capitalists re- Dodd Ass as the phrase goes, 'name the talist can say how much he will give for 157 Market St., Erst shoe store above Broad man." and, secondly, the TERMS that are granted agents, because the profit to be made solling a bock depends largely upon the GENERAL DESIRE FOR SUCH A WORK. Here is a notable illustration of this: From Main's to California there is the most intermed desire to procure an authentic illustrated work descriptive of the remarkable career of this man, who has risen from the humblest walks of life, led the mighty armies of the Union to victory, filled for eight years the bighest office in the gift of the American people, and who has for the cast two years, been the honored guests of KINGS, PRINCES, EMPERORS, and STATES-MEN throughout the world. Again, there is a widespread and increasing interest in other nations, and a desire to know more of their forms of government, religious views, strange customs, of government, religious views, strame customs, etc., which renders this book peculiarly attractive to the people at this time, and nence remarkably salable. Thirdly, the book itself is so elegantly gotten up and so richly illustrated (belug printed on a beautifully toned and super-calendered paper, as to be a strong attraction of itself. Fourthly, in a point of authorship Mr. Headley is so winely known, so universally propular, as to render it as EXTREMELY HAST DEED ARM. Veneza not fail
